Order of the Arrow

Greetings Brothers,

Our early season of ordeals has ended as of June 8. Be sure to welcome and congratulate our new arrowmen. Those scouts who you know have been elected, but have not yet gone through the ordeal, encourage them to make the ordeal in September at Camp Sheppard.

Speaking of Camp Sheppard, the ordeal presents a wonderful opportunity for new arrowmen to serve the Order of the Arrow. Volunteer to come and work the ordeal as an Elangomat. This is a Native American term that means "friend or helper". Since you have been through the ordeal yourself, you can help others get through theirs.

We had a successful Brotherhood Ceremony at the Camporee, with 10 arrowmen sealing their membership to the order. Congratulations are in order for Chris Westcott, Shawn Martin, Peter Mosher, Kevin Mosher, Andrew Harron, Brian Smith, Matt Hornback, Stephen Bowser and Nick Mikula from Hyas Eena Chapter. Brian Higdon from Wau Wau Talapus Chapter (Foothills District) also participated in the ceremony. As soon as I have confirmed dates for the next Brotherhood Ceremony, I will announce it in another newsletter.

We also held an election for the Chapter Officers for the coming year. Will Westcott, Jr. will serve another term as Chapter Chief. Here is the slate of Vice Chiefs for the next year.

Vice-Chief for Activities

Parker Thompson

Vice-Chief for Ceremonies

Kevin Mosher

Vice-Chief for Camping

Shawn Martin

Vice-Chief for Inductions (non LDS units) Chris Westcott

Vice-Chief for Inductions (LDS units) Stu Hanson

Congratulations to all these scouts and thank you for being willing to serve. Kent Cornucopia Days is just over a month away. Hyas Eena Chapter is planning on setting up a model campsite. We still need volunteers to man the displays and do Scouting. Any scouting activity that you like to participate in is fair game. We want arrowmen to be showing off their skills. We want to see everything from basic scout skills to advanced pioneering. Scout related hobbies are welcome also, like leatherwork, woodcarving or patchcollecting. If you have any ideas or would like to volunteer to help out,

Order of the Arrow
