"The oak was once an acorn." If ever you feel hopeless about getting on to success in life from a small beginning, remember that even that great strong tree, the oak, began at first as a little acorn lying on the ground. (YFBS 185)

Joint Emergency Service Drill to be Revived

Wood Badge

Fall Course: Sept. 12th-14th and 26th-28th

Location: Camp Parsons

What is Wood Badge? Fun—Fellowship—Leadership—Renewal of commitment—Exchange of Information! Wood Badge is a leadership course designed so every adult leader for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Varsity Scouts, or Venturing, as well as district and council leaders and professionals, can take the Wood Badge course within two years of becoming a Scouter (though it is never too late).

What will I get out of Wood Badge?

As a participant you will take part in presentations, discussions, and team building activities that explore a wide range of leadership philosophies and tools. A key area of exploration is the process of team development. By recognizing the stages through which developing teams must pass, you will learn to apply appropriate leadership strategies that enable teams to reach their highest level of performance.

When is Wood Badge offered? The Fall Course 2008 is two Friday-Sunday weekends lead by Lyle Hall. It is limited in space and is by registration at the Chief Seattle Council offices only. The Course is now taking applications and is filling up. If you have an interest--sign up now. Bring a friend!

How do I find more information & register for Wood Badge? For information go to the Council website (<http://members.doubleknot.com/woodbadge/> or <http://training.seattlebsa.org>) or contact Brian Lenhart at 206-902-2340.

The PTC and Wood Badge have their own forms available at Roundtable or online.

Can I take part of a training session in another district? YES. Go to seattlebsa.org and check the calendars for different districts. In fact, Alpine District offers Saturday trainings. After the course, have them sign your training card and update your training record with your Pack at recharter time.

I'm already trained. What now? If you haven't taken Wood Badge yet, do that. It will benefit you inside and outside of scouting. Consider joining the training staff for a course and share your expertise with others. Come to the PTC and Roundtables to keep yourself energized and to pick up new ideas and skills.

WashJam

For only the second time in Washington State History, the Boy Scouts of America will host an all-state Jamboree: WashJam 2009. Co-sponsored by the Chief Seattle Council and Pacific Harbors Council, WashJam will attract youth and leaders from all over the Puget Sound region. Each will assemble at Fort Lewis Army Base, just south of Tacoma, Washington on August 20-23, 2009, for the most exciting Scouting event of the year. Entertaining activities and unforgettable shows will attract thousands of Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Venturers. "This is a great opportunity for our young people to try new activities and gives the youth a chance to form relationships with Scouts from other packs and troops across council boundaries," said Rick Cordray, the WashJam chairman. "It is a way for youth to experience a unique Jamboree setting while keeping travel expenses low." Scouts and Leaders will set up camp on the grounds of Fort Lewis and cooking will be done by patrols in traditional jamboree style. Nearly 4,000 attended the first event of this kind in 2004 and we anticipate even more participants this time around. The WashJam 2009 theme, "Celebrate the Adventure," coincides with the theme of the BSA centennial, and this event will kickoff more than a year of special events celebrating this historical milestone. WashJam memorabilia will be available to enhance Scouts and Scouters collections. The event is being led by overall chairman Rick Cordray, and Brian Harron heads the contingent of adult volunteers representing the Chief Seattle Council. For registration, sponsorship, or other information visit the WashJam website – www.washjam.org.

Youth Protection

Communicate Acceptance

When children and youth know that you accept them just as they are, they are able to grow, change, and feel good about themselves. When children and youth feel good about themselves, they are likely to get along well with others.

Accepting children and youth – just as they are – makes talking with them easier. Children and youth who feel accepted are more likely to share their feelings as well as their problems. Then you will feel less in the dark as a parent, relative, friend, caregiver, or leader.

When Adults

Threaten
Command
Preach
Lecture

Children Feel

"I'm worthless"
"I'm bad"
"You don't like me"
"I can't do anything right"

Example:

Jake says "Mr. Jones, Tommy and I are scared to sleep in the dark tent."

Which response communicate acceptance?

A. Both of you ought to be ashamed, turn on your flashlights!

You're both acting like big babies! You both know there's nothing to be scared of!

B. Both if you sound frightened and I know it's your first camp out with the troop. Mr. Call and I will throw another log on the fire and stay out here until you both go to sleep. Don't forget to zip up your tent!

Remember:

We can accept children and youth without necessarily approving of their behavior.

Example:

We care about and accept Pete, but we can't accept his behavior when he chooses to speak and act rudely.

Cub Scout Winter Camp - Cold fun for Wolves and Bears.

The Chief Seattle Council would like to invite Wolf and Bear Cub Scouts and their parents to come up for some winter fun at Camp Sheppard, near Crystal Mountain Ski Resort. Available dates include December 6-7, December 13-14, and 20-21. Cost for the overnight adventure is $50 per person, $100 per parent/son team.

Fun activities will be going on throughout the camp, allowing you and your son to move from area to area at your own pace. Planned activities include snow tubing, snow shoe hiking, scavenger hunts, games, sports, crafts, day hikes, campfires, Cub Scout advancement and more. All meals are provided in the dining hall and campers sleep in heated cabins. Registration forms will be available at roundtable and at the council service center.

2008 Winter Camp

The Camp Sheppard winter camp season is on the horizon and we have high hopes for another great season of winter outdoor fun. Reservations for the upcoming season will be open until Friday, October 24. Registrations turned in by this date will be placed in a drawing to be held on Monday, October 27 at which time units will be placed in one of their chosen weeks. All remaining camp spaces will then be filled on a first come first served basis. Flyers will be available at your district roundtables and at the council service center.

Advancement opportunities will be provided for both Boy Scouts and Webelos as part of the winter camp program. There will also be other activities available throughout your stay at camp.

Cost for 2008 winter camp is based on your length of stay. The three options are as follows:

Plan A - $67 per person for Friday after dinner, Saturday and Sunday morning. Includes 4 meals and two nights lodging.

Plan B - $55 per person for Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. Includes 2 meals (dinner and Sunday brunch) and lodging for one night.

Plan C - $55 per person for Friday after dinner and Saturday early afternoon. Includes 2 meals (Saturday breakfast and lunch) and lodging for one night.

Scouting Centennial Watch

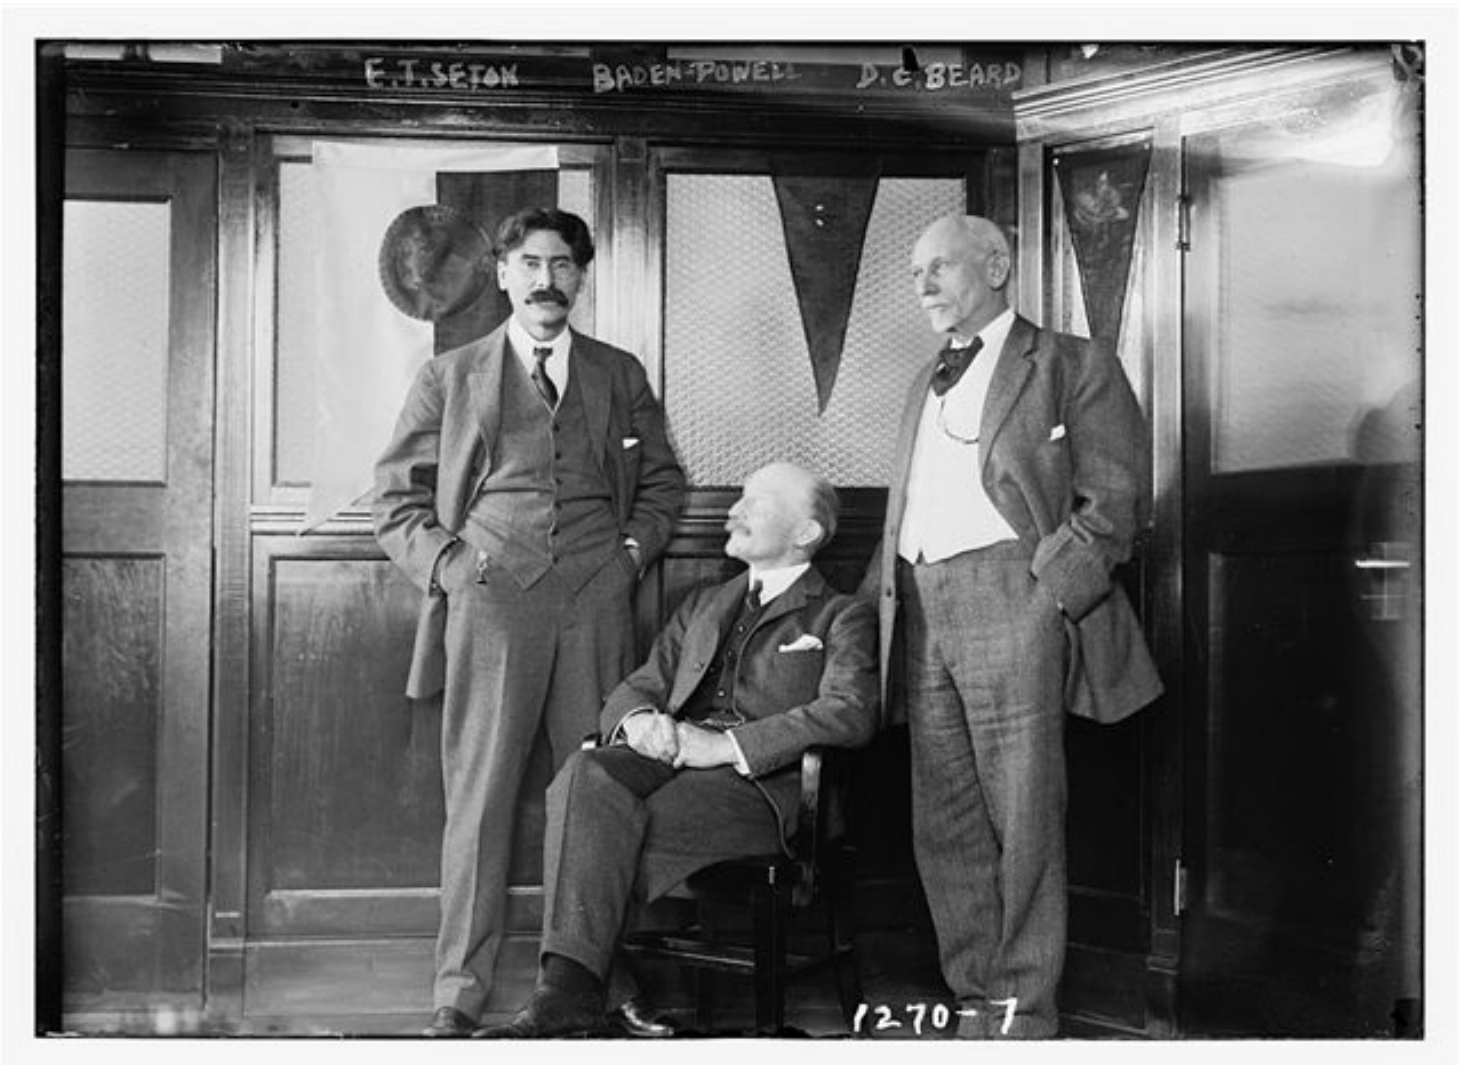

When Lord Baden Powell was introduced as the “father of Scouting” at an early meeting of the Boys Scouts of America in New York City in 1910, he said he considered himself an “uncle” of the BSA and that Ernest Thompson Seton and Daniel Carter Beard should be called the fathers. BP was quick to admit that Scouting was not his unique creation, and that he used ideas of many others. From Seton, who had founded the Woodcraft Indians in 1902, BP adopted an advancement system with three levels (now Tenderfoot, Second Class and First Class Scout) based in personal achievement and not competition with others. Beard, illustrator to Mark Twain and founder of the Sons of Daniel Boone, was the first to use the term “Boy Scout”, used the model of the self reliant American pioneer rather than BP’s chivalrous knight, and designed the American scout badge with the eagle superimposed on the fleur de lis.

Today, as it was then, Scouting gets its real strength and success in the combined ideas and energies of a group of leaders and not just the actions of one individual: Scoutmaster, Cubmaster or Den Leader. Scouting is a movement and not a fixed organization. The development of the national program is largely the result of new ideas coming from the local level.

Have you made the commitment to set obtainable goals for your unit on this year’s Centennial Unit Award form yet? The boys deserve it!

Gary Twite
District Chair

A CALL TO ALL UNIT LEADERS AND COMMISSIONERS!

As I am sure many of you realize, in our District, we are in desperate need of Unit Commissioners – a friend to the units and their leaders. I would encourage each unit to look within your ranks of volunteers to take on the role (a friend to some unit) as Unit Commissioner.

Outside of one monthly meeting, 11 times each year, it would only take an hour or less of your time each month to service as a friend to a unit. Some of you are already serving as an Assistant Scout Masters, acting as a Webelos Coordinator, or just sometimes working with another Pack, Troop, or Venture Crew are already serving in the capacity as a friend / liaison with a Unit outside of your own. Please help us by officially signing up as a Unit Commissioner and make that secondary role that you are currently playing an official one.

Yours in Scouting Service,

Bob Czaplinski
District Commissioner

2010 National Jamboree

The 17th National Jamboree will be held at Ft. A.P. Hill, VA on July 26-August 4, 2010. Chief Seattle Council has requested to send 6 troops.

Though it's less than two years away, the Chief Seattle Council Jamboree Committee has already been meeting for over a year; planning the tour and determining the logistics and costs for this event. This Jamboree will be celebrating 100 years of Scouting in the US and will be the last Jamboree held at Fort AP Hill, in Virginia.

Jamboree for many Scouts, is a once in a lifetime event. Almost 40,000 scouts from the US and throughout the world will attend Jamboree. Jamboree will take place July 26th through August 4th, 2010 with a week tour prior to Jamboree. If you will be First Class Scout and 12 years old by 7/1/2010; completed the 6th grade and will not turn 18 before 8/3/2010, you are eligible to attend.

At the October 9th 2008 Roundtable, a presentation on National Jamboree will be held at the Kent LDS Ward on 94th Avenue from 7:30 till 8:30. All interested scouts and parents should attend this meeting as we will show a short video and answer questions. We will also introduce the South end Jamboree Scoutmaster and if the selection is finalized, the Assistant Scoutmasters.

For general information, go to national scout website which is at www.bsajamboree.org. To ensure a spot, you can go to www.seattlebsa.org and sign-up now and come to the meeting for more detailed information. We will also be accepting applications after the meeting.

For more information, you may also contact John Rosenlund at dcjohnr@comcast.net or Cecil Stellyes at cecil_of_kent@earthlink.net for information.

See you at the 10/9 meeting and at the Hill in 2010!
