Wood Badge

What is Wood Badge? Fun—Fellowship—Leadership—Renewal of commitment—Exchange of Information! Wood Badge is a leadership course designed so every adult leader for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Varsity Scouts, or Venturing, as well as district and council leaders and professionals, can take the Wood Badge course within two years of becoming a Scouter (though it is never too late).

What will I get out of Wood Badge?

As a participant you will take part in presentations, discussions, and team building activities that explore a wide range of leadership philosophies and tools. A key area of exploration is the process of team development. By recognizing the stages through which developing teams must pass, you will learn to apply appropriate leadership strategies that enable teams to reach their highest level of performance.

When is Wood Badge offered? The Fall Course 2008 is two Friday-Sunday weekends lead by Lyle Hall. It is limited in space and is by registration at the Chief Seattle Council offices only. The Course is now taking applications and is filling up. If you have an interest--sign up now. Bring a friend!

How do I find more information & register for Wood Badge? For information go to the Council website (<http://members.doubleknot.com/woodbadge/> or <http://training.seattlebsa.org>) or contact Brian Lenhart at 206-902-2340.

Sounds great! How can I register for a course? Most classes that aren't online can be registered for with an email to the cub training chair (brumbaughd@comcast.net). Please try to register at least 1 week before the course. If there are no participants pre-registered, the class will be cancelled. The PTC and Wood Badge have their own forms available at Roundtable or online.

Can I take part of a training session in another district? YES. Go to seattlebsa.org and check the calendars for different districts. In fact, Alpine District offers Saturday trainings. After the course, have them sign your training card and update your training record with your Pack at recharter time.

I'm already trained. What now? If you haven't taken Wood Badge yet, do that. It will benefit you inside and outside of scouting. Consider joining the training staff for a course and share your expertise with others. Come to the PTC and Roundtables to keep yourself energized and to pick up new ideas and skills.

District Cub Training Chair Needed

I will be moving on from coordinating the training for Cub scout leaders in June and would love to have a replacement in line for a smooth transition. I benefited so much from the time and training of those before me that I felt I needed to do that in turn for those who were behind me and became the training chair for the district. I've been doing this for cubs even though my boys have been in boy scouts and now they are both working on Eagles. It's time to turn it over to the next person. I'm more than willing to train and walk through what I do for you. If you want to know more or are willing to consider stepping into this role, please call me at 253-631-3837 or email me at brumbaughd@comast.net. It is a great opportunity to give back and make a difference. Thanks, Denise Brumbaugh

Order of the Arrow

IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO ADULT ARROWMEN!!

I have announced to both district and lodge leadership that this will be my last year of service as Chapter Adviser. My travel requirements for work are heating up and after 7 1/2 years, it is time for me to step aside. I am looking for someone who would like to step up now as an Associate Adviser with an eye to taking over next June. The rewards and challenges are very similar to that of Scoutmaster, so a former SM arrowman would be a wonderful candidate. If you think you might be interested in a new scouting challenge, let me know and we can go over some more of the requirements and expectations of the job. If you know of someone that you think might be a good Adviser, send me a name and I'll get in touch with them.

Attention Scoutmasters! November through March is election season. Scoutmasters please discuss the calendar with their Senior Patrol Leaders and get their unit election on the calendar.

Contact Paul Edwards at greyscouter@comcast.net or by phone at 253-852-0319.

WashJam

For only the second time in Washington State History, the Boy Scouts of America will host an all-state Jamboree: WashJam 2009. Co-sponsored by the Chief Seattle Council and Pacific Harbors Council, WashJam will attract youth and leaders from all over the Puget Sound region. Each will assemble at Fort Lewis Army Base, just south of Tacoma, Washington on August 20-23, 2009, for the most exciting Scouting event of the year. Entertaining activities and unforgettable shows will attract thousands of Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Venturers. "This is a great opportunity for our young people to try new activities and gives the youth a chance to form relationships with Scouts from other packs and troops across council boundaries," said Rick Cordray, the WashJam chairman. "It is a way for youth to experience a unique Jamboree setting while keeping travel expenses low." Scouts and Leaders will set up camp on the grounds of Fort Lewis and cooking will be done by patrols in traditional jamboree style. Nearly 4,000 attended the first event of this kind in 2004 and we anticipate even more participants this time around. The WashJam 2009 theme, "Celebrate the Adventure," coincides with the theme of the BSA centennial, and this event will kickoff more than a year of special events celebrating this historical milestone. WashJam memorabilia will be available to enhance Scouts and Scouters collections. The event is being led by overall chairman Rick Cordray, and Brian Harron heads the contingent of adult volunteers representing the Chief Seattle Council. For registration, sponsorship, or other information visit the WashJam website – www.washjam.org.

Youth Protection

Communicate Acceptance

When children and youth know that you accept them just as they are, they are able to grow, change, and feel good about themselves. When children and youth feel good about themselves, they are likely to get along well with others.

Accepting children and youth – just as they are – makes talking with them easier. Children and youth who feel accepted are more likely to share their feelings as well as their problems. Then you will feel less in the dark as a parent, relative, friend, caregiver, or leader.

When Adults

Threaten Command
Preach
Lecture

Children Feel

"I'm worthless"
"I'm bad"
"You don't like me"
"I can't do anything right"

Example:

Jake says "Mr. Jones, Tommy and I are scared to sleep in the dark tent."

Which response communicate acceptance?

A. Both of you ought to be ashamed, turn on your flashlights!

You're both acting like big babies! You both know there's nothing to be scared of!

B. Both if you sound frightened and I know it's your first camp out with the troop. Mr. Call and I will throw another log on the fire and stay out here until you both go to sleep. Don't forget to zip up your tent!

Remember:

We can accept children and youth without necessarily approving of their behavior.

Example:

We care about and accept Pete, but we can't accept his behavior when he chooses to speak and act rudely.

Cub Scout Winter Camp - Cold fun for Wolves and Bears.

The Chief Seattle Council would like to invite Wolf and Bear Cub Scouts and their parents to come up for some winter fun at Camp Sheppard, near Crystal Mountain Ski Resort. Available dates include December 13-14, and 20-21. Cost for the overnight adventure is $50 per person, $100 per parent/son team.

Fun activities will be going on throughout the camp, allowing you and your son to move from area to area at your own pace. Planned activities include snow tubing, snow shoe hiking, scavenger hunts, games, sports, crafts, day hikes, campfires, Cub Scout advancement and more. All meals are provided in the dining hall and campers sleep in heated cabins. Registration forms will be available at roundtable and at the council service center.

2008 Winter Camp

The Camp Sheppard winter camp season is on the horizon and we have high hopes for another great season of winter outdoor fun. Reservations for the upcoming season will be open until Friday, October 24. Registrations turned in by this date will be placed in a drawing to be held on Monday, October 27 at which time units will be placed in one of their chosen weeks. All remaining camp spaces will then be filled on a first come first served basis. Flyers will be available at your district roundtables and at the council service center.

Advancement opportunities will be provided for both Boy Scouts and Webelos as part of the winter camp program. There will also be other activities available throughout your stay at camp.

Cost for 2008 winter camp is based on your length of stay. The three options are as follows:

Plan A - $67 per person for Friday after dinner, Saturday and Sunday morning. Includes 4 meals and two nights lodging.

Plan B - $55 per person for Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. Includes 2 meals (dinner and Sunday brunch) and lodging for one night.

Plan C - $55 per person for Friday after dinner and Saturday early afternoon. Includes 2 meals (Saturday breakfast and lunch) and lodging for one night.

A CALL TO ALL UNIT LEADERS AND COMMISSIONERS!

As I am sure many of you realize, in our District, we are in desperate need of Unit Commissioners – a friend to the units and their leaders. I would encourage each unit to look within your ranks of volunteers to take on the role (a friend to some unit) as Unit Commissioner.

Outside of one monthly meeting, 11 times each year, it would only take an hour or less of your time each month to service as a friend to a unit. Some of you are already serving as an Assistant Scout Masters, acting as a Webelos Coordinator, or just sometimes working with another Pack, Troop, or Venture Crew are already serving in the capacity as a friend / liaison with a Unit outside of your own. Please help us by officially signing up as a Unit Commission and make that secondary role that you are currently playing an official one.

Yours in Scouting Service,

Bob Czaplinski
District Commissioner

2010 National Jamboree

Though it's less than 650 days away, the Chief Seattle Council Jamboree Committee has already been meeting for over 18 months; planning the tour and determining the logistics and costs for this event. This Jamboree will be celebrating 100 years of Scouting in the US and will be the last Jamboree held at Fort AP Hill, in Virginia.

Jamboree for many Scouts, is a once in a lifetime event. Almost 40,000 scouts from the US and throughout the world will attend Jamboree. Jamboree will take place July 26th through August 4th, 2010 with a week tour prior to Jamboree. If you will be First Class Scout and 12 years old by 7/1/2010; completed the 6th grade and will not turn 18 before 8/3/2010, you are eligible to attend!

For general information, go to the national scout website which is at www.bsajamboree.org. Adult volunteers are also needed for sub-camp staff and other exciting and fun positions at Jamboree

Green River District 2009 Christmas Tree Drive – January 3rd

It's that time to start organizing another unit fundraiser while also providing a community service project. Each year we divide up the district into several sub-areas. We take sign ups for these areas, then usually on the Saturday before (Dec 27th) you distribute flyers out to your assigned neighbor / area with a suggested donation of $5 (we expect you to pick up any tree left on a sidewalk as part of your community service), and bring it down to the City of Kent's Russell Road Park for chipping. Join us this year, individual units can make a lot of money at this and you get to help the community recycle by keeping the trees out of our landfills with the chips being used in our local parks!

2009 Green River District Planning Meeting – January 10th

Your Green River District Committee will be meeting on January 10th to set the calendar for the years 2009, 2010, & 2011 along with working on several goals for the district in 2009.

Please submit any dates that you know of to our District Chairman Gary Twite ASAP. And if you have any dreams or goals that you would like to see the District work on, let us know that as well.

Green River District 2009 Klondike Derby & Snow Bash – January 17th

Klondike Derby! This is the District's winter event that is similar to a camporee but of course is held --- yes you guessed it --- in the winter. There are two distinct parts to this year's event: the Klondike Derby and the Snow Bash. The name Klondike originated from the gold rush era, where miners tested their skills against the elements for precious pieces of gold. Some struck it rich and, well, some not so rich. Likewise, Patrols and Dens will be awarded gold nuggets by competing against each other in a series of games based on scouting skills. New games have been added this year. At the end of the competition, the nuggets (and times) are added up and we award trophies and ribbons for 1st place (combined total score in the skill games) in three categories; Webelos, First Year Scouts and Experienced Scouts along with Patrol ribbons for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place at each skill game.

Snow Bash! After the Derby skill games, join us for some carnival type games and good old-fashioned fun, like Penguin bowling and pelting Frosty with snowballs! We'll have hot dogs along with some other snacks available for purchase. (Yes! We'll still be having our infamous "Mystery Soup Kettle", so don't forget to bring your two cans of soup!). What we are also adding this year is the Iditarod... Scout Style. Like the namesake, Patrols/Dens can enter to race or "mush" their sled through a course at Ensign Ranch. Teams (Patrols/Dens) can enter the race after the Derby. Start time is 12:30. There is a special award for the team that crosses the finish line in the shortest amount of time. See details in our Leaders Guide on the Green River District web site.

WHO: All Boy Scout Patrols, Venturers, and Webelos Dens may participate.

WHEN: Saturday, January 17, 2009. The Derby begins promptly at 9 a.m. (patrols can begin checking in at headquarters at 8:00 a.m.). Assemble at the "Klondike Start" Sign near the Snow Bash Area. Check the attached map below.

CHECK IN: Upon arrival all troops should check in with their registration form filled out (see form below) at Klondike Headquarters (summer cabins at the Field). Check in time is Friday night up until 9:30 p.m. or Saturday morning beginning at 8:00 a.m.

WHERE: Ensign Ranch – located approximately 75 miles east of Seattle just off of I-90. Take exit 78 – Golf Course Road; turn left and go under I-90; turn left again on Frontage road and travel 2-1/2 miles west to the entrance. The Ranch will collect a $3.00 day use fee when you enter the parking area.

1st 2009 Green River District Merit Badge Clinic – January 24th & March 14th

Our first of 2 yearly Merit Badge Clinic's is set of January 24th and March 14th. Stay tuned for additional information.

SCOUTING CENTENNIAL WATCH # 4 By Gary Twite District Chair

I don't know about you, but one of my favorite things to do is to visit the Scout shop just to see what is new. In the first decades of the BSA, if you wanted to buy a uniform, and did not live in a large city, you would have to order from headquarters in New York, NY until the National Scout Supply started marketing through the Council offices. Looking at the old equipment lists, some items might seem old fashioned such as the "Smokey Bear" hats, and breeches instead of long pants. However history often repeats itself. The new scout shirt has bellows pockets just like shirts issued from 1910-20, albeit the earlier issue only came in long sleeves without an "I-Pod" pocket. I thought you might enjoy seeing what was available for Christmas in 1937. I have attached a page of the December issue of Boys Life. The format was much larger so it was hard to scan. It was also interesting to note that although Boys Life sold for 20 cents in the teens and twenties, it sold for 10 cents in the thirties probably as a result of the depression. I would like to wish all of you happy holidays, and good Scouting in 2009!

Christmas "hinting" early!
